

Mindy was admitted to the Florida Bar in May 2005, and established her firm, Mindy Stein, P.A., in Boca Raton in July 2008. Mindy Stein P.A. is a firm providing estate planning and probate administration; and advocacy, guidance and legal services to elderly and special needs individuals and their families.

Mindy received her bachelor's degree from Clark University, and her Master's Degree in Social Work from Columbia University School of Social Work. After fifteen years of practice as a clinical social worker, primarily with elderly and disabled individuals and their families in home and institutional settings, Mindy returned to school and received her Juris Doctorate from the Shepard Broad Law Center at Nova Southeastern University.

Mindy is actively involved in activities for the betterment of the legal and local communities. She has been a member of the Board of Directors of South Palm Beach County FAWL since 2007, and is the immediate past President of the South Palm Beach County Florida Association of Women Lawyers (FAWL). Mindy also serves as a Board Member of the Jewish Association for Residential Care (JARC) and is co-chair of JARC's Aging in Place Committee. She is a Member of the Professional Advisory Committee (PAC) for the Foundation of the Jewish Federation of South Palm Beach County; Co-Chair of the Elder Law Committee of the South Palm Beach County Bar; Member of the South County Advisory Council for Alzheimer's Community Care, and a volunteer guardian advocate for the probate court.

Mindy is also a member of the South Palm Beach County Bar Association, National Association of Elder Law Attorneys; Florida Association of Elder Law Attorneys, the Greater Boca Raton Estate Planning Council, the Florida Bar Real Property Probate and Trust Section; the Florida Bar Elder Law Section, the Mitzvah Society of the Jewish Federation of South Palm Beach County, National Council of Jewish Women, Planned Parenthood, and Hadassah.

In March 2011, Mindy received the Volunteer of the Year Award at JARC's annual gala, where she was recognized for her pro bono work with JARC residents.

In June 2012, Mindy was awarded a Leader of the Law Award from the Florida Association for Women Lawyers at the annual Florida Bar Convention in Orlando.