

Merryl Silverman Haber attended Whittier Law School and received her Juris Doctorate in 1992. She participated in Moot Court and the Homeless Advocacy Project. She worked throughout law school for personal injury law firms. She participated in a trial program that allowed law school students to represent workers compensation claimants at their depositions.

After being admitted to the California Bar in 1992, Merryl practiced multi-party construction defect defense litigation as a Senior Associate at Koletsky, Mancini and Feldman in Los Angeles. Merryl was admitted to the Florida Bar in 1995. She moved to Boca Raton, Florida, where she has lived since 1996, and has been an active member of the Boca Raton community. She joined Fertig & Gramling, a prominent insurance defense firm in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida in 1996, where she defended premises liability, general liability, professional malpractice, declaratory relief and coverage cases, maritime cases and commercial trucking and related cases.

In January 2010, Merryl joined the prestigious Plaintiff's Personal Injury firm, Lesser, Lesser, Landy & Smith, PLLC, established in 1927. Merryl works primarily out of the Firm's Boca office. She is enjoying representing injured clients and their families in auto negligence (including commercial trucking) and premises liability cases, and related liability injury cases. True to the Firm's mission, Merryl is very active in the Boca Raton community, including leadership at Omni Middle School, and she also continues the Firm's strong support for the Boca Raton Chamber of Commerce, the Levis Jewish Community Center, and the ADL
