

Taryn earned her Bachelor's degree from the University of Central Florida in 2001. She then graduated from Nova Southeastern University, Shepard Broad Law Center in May 2005 and was admitted to the Florida Bar in September 2005.

She began her career as an Assistant State Attorney at the Broward County State Attorney's Office where she prosecuted a wide variety of crimes from misdemeanors to first-degree felonies, including DUI's, drug crimes, and violent crimes. She held the position of lead felony prosecutor, followed by supervisor in the county court division. She later worked with a Boca Raton law firm, where she practiced marital and family law. In March 2009, Taryn pursued her dream of owning her own law practice, and focuses her practice in the area of marital and family law.

Taryn is the past Public Relations officer for the South Palm Beach County Chapter of FAWL, and currently serves on the Board of Directors as Secretary. Taryn is also active in the South Palm Beach County Bar Association and serves as Secretary for the Young Lawyers Section of SPBCBA.