

Attorney Tammy B. Saltzman is a Family Law attorney and a Florida Supreme Court Certified Family Mediator. She obtained her B.A in 1995 from Barry University and her JD from Nova Southeastern University in 1999. Tammy is committed to helping couples maintain their marital assets by collaborating and mediating their family law issues instead of litigating. She helps couples focus their energy into creating a new future instead of dwelling on the past. Tammy's practice includes divorce, modification, paternity, family law mediation, and residential real estate matters.
