

Leorah G. Greenman has been an attorney at Frank, Weinberg & Black, PL since 2006 and is admitted to practice law in New York and Florida. Ms. Greenman manages the Residential Real Estate Department in the Boca Raton Office of Frank, Weinberg & Black, PL. She focuses her practice on representing buyers and sellers of residential and commercial real estate in all aspects of contract drafting/review, negotiations, inspection and due diligence matters, financing, title and closing and the like. She is an authorized title agent to national title insurance company underwriters such as Fidelity National Title Insurance, Old Republic National Title Insurance Company. Ms. Greenman provides representation in all phases of commercial and residential real estate transactions, refinance, commercial and residential leasing and provides closing/title services, as well.

Ms. Greenman graduated from Binghamton University, in upstate New York, in 1996. She received her Juris Doctorate from Hofstra University School of Law, in Long Island, NY in 1999.

She is the current President of the South Palm Beach County Chapter of the Florida Association for Women Lawyers, after having served on the Board in many offices for over 4 years. She is also a Member of the South Palm Beach County Bar Association and Member of the Boca Raton Chamber of Commerce. Ms. Greenman resides in Boca Raton Florida with her husband, Michael Friedman and their two children. She enjoys cooking, yoga and spending time with her family.