

TARYN G. SINATRA received her Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Central Florida in 2001. She then earned her law degree from Nova Southeastern University, Shepard Broad Law Center in 2005. After working as a Certified Legal Intern with the Broward County State Attorney's Office during law school, she began her career as an Assistant State Attorney in Broward County in 2005, where she prosecuted various crimes from misdemeanors to first-degree felonies. Ms. Sinatra later worked as an associate attorney with a firm in Boca Raton, Florida in 2009 focusing her practice on marital and family law. In March 2010, she opened her own practice and founded the Law Offices of Taryn G. Sinatra, P.A. in Delray Beach, Florida. Ms. Sinatra was the owner of her firm handling marital and family law matters exclusively for five years before joining Gladstone & Weissman, P.A.

Born in Brooklyn, New York and raised in Long Island, New York, Ms. Sinatra then moved in 1990 where she was raised in Palm Bay, Florida. She has been a south Florida resident since 2002 and currently lives in Palm Beach County with her husband and two sons.

Ms. Sinatra has recently been featured in Attorney At Law Magazine as one of fourteen attorneys to watch in 2014, as well as in the March, 2014 and May, 2015 editions of Atlantic Avenue Magazine. She was also nominated and selected as a "Rising Star" in Super Lawyers for 2014-'15.

Ms. Sinatra is currently the President-Elect of the Board of Directors of the South Palm Beach County Florida Association for Women Lawyers, President of the Young Lawyers Section of the South Palm Beach County Bar Association, and a founding Barrister of the Susan Greenberg Palm Beach Family Law Inns of Court.
